

TWO MORE OUT OF SHERIFF RACE

Hopkins Declares He Expects to Throw His Support to F. J. Bays

Two more with awails in the sheriff's race were noted yesterday by John L. Smiley, secretary of the county election board. They are T. C. Hopkins on the republican ticket and J. I. He said that he favored the nomination of Bays who at present is county investigator.

George H. Blaine, former chief of police and regarded as one of the strongest candidates in the race withdrew two days ago, throwing all of his support to Bays. Those now seeking the republican nomination are W. M. McCullough, present incumbent, W. M. Pettibair, G. A. Ward and B. J. Crabtree.

Crabtree is an officer on the police force and was regarded as a strong contender in the rural districts for the democratic nomination. He is a resident of West Tulsa, James Woolley, a former sheriff, also withdrew from the race several days ago. There are now running for democratic honors Bob Atkins of Red Fork, R. D. Sanford and H. J. Gray, a justice of the peace.

Smiley reiterated yesterday that all candidates who wish to withdraw before the primary election must file such notice with the county election board by Monday. SON OF TULSA FALLS TO DEATH today is accounted for by the fact that the searchers concentrated their efforts at the foot of the rock and on the north side where it was most probable that an accident would occur. Fitzgerald had been ambitious to search the Flatiron for some time past according to his friends. He was a member of the Rocky Mountain climbing club and had made every trip taken by the organization this year. He was of muscular build and was considered a good hiker.

Fitzgerald came to Boulder with his mother and younger brother three weeks ago yesterday. He registered for summer work at the university and planned to enter the school as a freshman next fall. This is the third visit of the Fitzgerald family to Boulder. They spent some time here seven years ago. The young man was 29-years old. He was raised in Tulsa where he went through high school. The father was notified of the accident this morning.

The tragic news that his son was dead reached the father, Harry L. Fitzgerald, Tulsa oil producer, at noon Saturday, a telegram from his wife waiting him upon his return to his residence, 1511 S. Denver, at the noon hour. Earlier in the morning Fitzgerald had read with pleasure a letter from his wife telling how she and the boys were enjoying their stay in the mountains. He left on the 6 o'clock train for Colorado. Arrangements for the disposal of the body were not to be reached until he had conferred with his wife. The mother and two sons started from Tulsa on their Colorado vacation trip June 14.

John Fitzgerald was the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald. He graduated in June from the academy at the University of Tulsa. He had higher grades for the year than any other member of the senior class, having an average of 92 plus, while the next highest average was of 88. He would have been pronounced the honor graduate of the class if he had had the requisite number of credits in physical education. He won several medals in track work during the past school year. He was studious and inclined to be quiet in manner. He had taken practically all his post-graduate-school training at the university.
